

SFORM DS 60

Green all-purpose release agent

SFORM DS 60 is a release agent in emulsion, composed of a mixture of silicones, fatty acids, and solubilized waxes dissolved in water.

When to use SFORM DS 60:

- With all kinds of concretes.
- For vertical and horizontal applications.
- For hot (up to 100°C) and room temperature applications.
- With all kind and materials of forms.

The advantages of SFORM DS 60:

- Easy release from the form.
- Perfect finition of the fairface.
- No crumbs, oils, or residues.
- Protection of metal forms from oxidation.
- Protection for joints (both in rubber and in steel).
- Absolutely eco-friendly.
- 80% biodegradable.
- Very low consumption: max. 0.050 l/m².
- Application by spraying, brush or roller.

Visual comparison between the surfaces of the concrete forms after demolding process. In the picture on the left, surface was treated with a high quality release agent- competitor, while in the picture on the right surface was treated with SFORM DS 60.

